DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement filed 9/22/2005 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(3) because it does not include a concise explanation of the relevance, as it is presently understood by the individual designated in 37 CFR 1.56(c) most knowledgeable about the content of the information, of each patent listed that is not in the English language. It has been placed in the application file, but the Fleissner reference has not been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

(a) The record contains insufficient description to determine the intended scope of the claimed "low-molecular mass," "high-molecular-mass" and "ultrahigh-molecular-mass." Although the general relationship of increasing molecular mass is clear, neither the specification nor the common knowledge of the art provides a basis for determining to any reasonable degree of confidence the intended scope of the three terms. The specification has established viscosity numbers for component A, components A and B together, and components A, B and C together, which appear to correlate with the molecular mass; however, none of the claims require all three viscosity measurements.

(b) In claim 6 (and claims 7-9 and 12 by dependency), the intended meaning of describing the catalyst in terms of "mileage" cannot be determined.

(c) In claims 1, 6 and 10 (an all remaining claims by dependency), the comonomer of B is recited as "the first comonomer," and the comonomer of C is recited as "the second comonomer." In a single composition reciting a first comonomer and a second comonomer, it is reasonably understood that the second comonomer is intended to be different from the first comonomer; otherwise, if the two were the same, the "second comonomer" would not constitute a second comonomer, it would simply be more of the first comonomer. However, the specification does not state whether the comonomer of B and C are different, and the working examples show only embodiments wherein the comonomer of B is the same as that of C. Accordingly, it cannot be determined whether or not the "second comonomer" is intended to be different from the first comonomer.
